

CAMP P.U.L.S.E. PROGRAM OVERVIEW

Program for Understanding
Leadership,
Self-Empowerment &
Exchange

Camp P.U.L.S.E. is a unique summer camp that provides international youths the opportunity to develop “21st century skills for global leadership and transforming the way they see themselves and the world around them.” The program aims to enable international students to acquire:

- Leadership acumen
- Effective communication skills, including English proficiency
- Critical thinking skills
- Cultural empathy
- Innovative global vision

WHY LEARN ABOUT WORLD WAR II IN ASIA?

Engage in Social Issues

Make Connections between Historical and Current Day Issues

Be Inspired to Make a Difference

Give Voice to Silenced Victims and Survivors

Understand Cultures and Histories from Multiple Perspectives

Learn Ethical Decision-making and Values

QUALITY OF OUR PROGRAM

Ratings by a certified teacher and teacher candidates from the Education University of Hong Kong:

Our lessons received a weighted average rating of

4.5/5

Our activities received a weighted average rating of

4.3/5

Highest ratings in volunteering and experiential learning activities on service leadership

IMPACT ON LEADERSHIP

Three traits of Leadership were analyzed:

Self-Awareness

Conflict Resolution

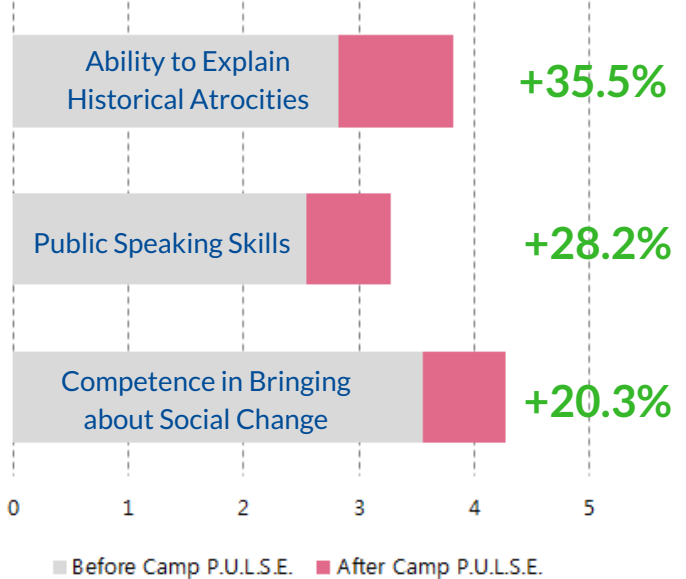

Communication

In the interpersonal dimension of leadership, students reported positive changes in specific aspects of their ability to resolve conflicts and their communication skills.

After 2 weeks at Camp P.U.L.S.E., students reported improvements in their:

63.6%

of students reported they feel more competent in bringing about social change

45.5%

of students reported an improvement in their English writing skills

36.4%

of students reported they feel more confident in their identity

IMPACT ON CIVIC ENGAGEMENT

Three traits of Civil Engagement were analyzed:

Social Awareness

Critical Analysis

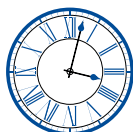

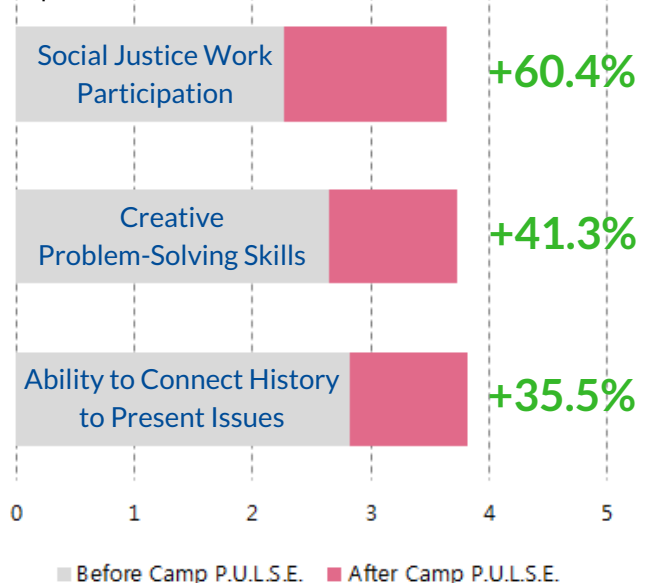

Solution Development

Students reported positive changes in several specific aspects of their social awareness, critical analysis ability, and problem solving skills. In sum, the students ability to take interest in, use creative approaches to solving social issues, and commitment to social justice action increased having participated in Camp P.U.L.S.E.

After 2 weeks at Camp P.U.L.S.E., students reported improvements in their:

An average improvement of

23.8%

across all Solution Development skills